

DRAWING

Coloring and drawing takes place at the House of Refuge. It allows the children to be creative as they draw and color. this exercise is very interesting as it creates competition among the children. Children are allowed to draw anything of their choice and then they color it in. Allowing street children to participate in this way is extremely interesting and helps to add to their confidence.

